

REINVENTING DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

RDC 2003

Belgrade, November 7th 2003

General Conference Details

Conference Sessions and Conference Format

The objective of this conference is to provide a forum for scholars to present, examine, and exchange ideas/research relevant for development in the time to come. A aim of this event is - beside the Institute of Economic Sciences (IEN) celebration of 45th birthday - to promote the conference as an activity of EADI and IEN within the EADI EDC 2010 project initiative (<http://www.eadi.org/edc2010.htm>). This project is intended to provide a vehicle for research, dissemination and debate, a forum in which the perspectives of different actors can be shared and developed.

The conference is organized as a traditional one day conference fostering floor discussion. The conference will start in morning but end at late afternoon.

Sponsoring Institutions

MNTR Ministry of Science, Technology and Development, Government of Serbia
Knowledge Partners and Conference Supporting Organizations/Donators

The Conference registration

The Conference participation is based on conference registration. The Conference registration fee is 100 Euro or 6500 dinars. Full-time student registration fee is 50% discount. The conference registration fee covers:

- Admission to conference sessions/social events
